LOGISTICS FOR EUROPE 2024: RETHINKING SUPPLY CHAINS

On 19 November, CLECAT and ESC will host the third Logistics for Europe 2024 event at the Representation of the State of North Rhine-Westphalia to the EU. Entitled 'Rethinking Supply Chains,' the event will bring together shippers, freight forwarders, and other stakeholders in the supply chain, as well as European lawmakers, for a constructive dialogue on the challenges facing European industry.

ECJ ANNULS THE RETURN OF THE VEHICLE PROVISION

The Court of Justice of the European Union published today its judgment in the case brought by seven Member States (Bulgaria, Cyprus, Hungary, Lithuania, Malta, Poland and Romania) challenging some provisions of the Mobility Package I adopted in 2020. While the court confirms most of the provisions of this legislation package, it annulled the obligation requiring vehicles to return on the Member state of establishment every eight weeks.
